CERTIFIED MEDIA PRODUCTION CREDIT
WORKSHEET INSTRUCTIONS

General Instructions

The recently enacted Certified Media Production benefit law provided for a credit for Maine income taxes associated with the income of a certified media production. The process required to receive the tax credit is outlined below.

Required Certificates. The qualified media production company must obtain two separate certifications from the Department of Economic and Community Development ("DECD"). The first certificate is applied for prior to the start of the media production. A Media Production Certificate is issued to the qualified media production company meeting initial program requirements. Once the media production certificate is obtained, the business may begin the qualified production. Within 28 days after completion of the qualified production, the business must request a Tax Reimbursement and Credit Certificate, also from DECD. Once DECD has determined that the business has successfully complied with all of the requirements for a certified media production, a Tax Reimbursement and Credit Certificate is issued to the business. (For more information on the Maine Certified Media Production Wage Reimbursement program, see Form 841ME and related instructions.)

Certified Media Production Tax Credit. The income tax credit is claimed on the business's annual Maine income tax return after obtaining a tax credit certificate from DECD. The credit is available to corporations through Form 1120ME and is available to individuals owners/members of pass-through entities and sole proprietors through Form 1040ME. If the certified media production is the only activity in Maine for the business, there will be no income tax due to Maine. If the business earns other Maine source income, the credit will be apportioned according to the percentage of Maine compensation associated with the certified media production. Also, if the business is a C corporation and has unitary affiliates, the entire group must file a combined report with Maine on Form CR, which is attached to Form 1120ME. Along with the Maine income tax return (1120ME, 1040ME) and Tax Credit Certificate, the business must also attach a copy of the Media Production Certificate issued by DECD (see 36 M.R.S.A. § 5219-Y(1)). In addition, the Certified Media Production Tax Credit Worksheet (available online at www.maine.gov/revenue) must accompany the Maine income tax return.
